

TEACHING FOR BILITERACY SUMMER INSTITUTE

AUTHORS/INSTRUCTORS

Karen Beeman, Cheryl Urow and the Center for Teaching for Biliteracy team provide professional development in Illinois and nationwide. Their work with districts has focused on areas related to program development and instruction, especially in the areas of biliteracy, the Bridge between languages, and the use of authentic methods for teaching literacy in Spanish.

2019

Teaching for Biliteracy Summer Institute #195553061

The Illinois Resource Center (IRC) is offering a 5-day summer institute focused on teaching for biliteracy in Spanish and English. The institute will feature:

- Overview of the strategic use of Spanish and English and teaching for biliteracy in transitional bilingual programs, dual language programs, and one-way and two-way immersion programs
- Best practices in teaching Spanish and English literacy
- Strategies that support translanguaging, making cross-linguistic connections, and the Bridge between languages
- Instructional practices specific to teaching reading and writing in each language
- Bilingual unit framework for developing and delivering standards-based biliteracy curriculum maps and units of instruction that integrate the teaching of language, literacy and content.

TARGET AUDIENCE

This institute is designed for educators responsible for providing Spanish literacy instruction, English literacy instruction, or both, to students in transitional bilingual, one-way immersion, two-way immersion and dual language programs.
